

CARMELO MESA-LAGO

BA Law University of Havana (1956), Doctor Law University Madrid and Diploma Social Security OISS (1958), MA Economics University of Miami (1965) and PhD Industrial and Labor Relations (social security) Cornell University (1968). Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Economics and Latin American Studies University of Pittsburgh (1999-), Distinguished Professor (1980-99), Director Center for Latin American Studies (1974-86); Greenleaf Visiting Professor Tulane University (2009), Professor/Research Scholar Florida International University (1999-02), Emilio Bacardi Visiting Professor University of Miami (1994); Visiting Professor Oxford University, Free University Berlin, Centro Latinoamericano de Economía Humana (Montevideo), Centro Interamericano Estudios de Seguridad Social (Mexico City), Instituto Universitario Ortega y Gasset (Madrid) and Universidad de Salamanca; Research Associate Max-Planck-Institut für Sozialrecht und Sozialpolitik (Munich) and Instituto Torcuato Di Tella (Buenos Aires); has taught at universities in Havana and Madrid. President of Latin American Studies Association (1980). Author: 94 books/monographs and 318 articles/chapters in books on Latin America's social security and health care, the Cuban economy and comparative economic systems, published in 7 languages in 34 countries. Recent books are: Market, Socialist and Mixed Economies: Comparative Policy and Performance—Chile, Cuba and Costa Rica (Johns Hopkins, 2000); Reassembling Social Security: A Survey of Pension and Health Care Reforms in Latin America (Oxford University Press, 2008, 2012); World Crisis Effects on Social Security in Latin America and the Caribbean: Lessons and Policies (University of London Institute for the Study of the Americas, 2010); Pensions in the Philippines: Diagnosis and Suggestions for Reform (Manila: Friedrich Ebert Stiftung, 2011); Re-Reforms of Privatized Pensions in the World (Munich: ZIAS Max Planck Institut für Sozialrech und Sozialpolitik, 2012); Cuba Under Raul Castro: Assessing the Reforms, with J. Pérez-López (Lynne Reinner, 2013); and Voices of Change in Cuba (University of Pittsburgh Press, 2018). Regional Advisor on Social Security ECLAC, 1983-84; consultant ILO, ISSA, World Bank, IADB, USAID, UNCTAD, UNDP, UNRISD, PAHO, Inter-American Foundation, Wharton Econometrics Forecasting, U.S. Department of State, GTZ, Friedrich Ebert Stiftung, Konrad Adenauer Stiftung. Has lectured in 40 countries in the Americas, Europe and Asia. Awards: ILO International Prize on Decent Work (life work on social protection, 2007 shared with Nelson Mandela), Alexander Von Humbolt Stiftung Senior Prize (social security research, 1991) and collaborative research grants (1997, 2002), 2 Fulbright Senior Awards (1995, 2003), University of Pittsburgh President's Senior Research Prize (1994) and Distinguished Service Prize (1995), Choice outstanding book (1995, 2006), Annual Award from Association for the Study of the Cuban Economy (1997), Homage from OISS and CISS (life work on social security, 2004, 2008) and the Institute of Cuban Studies/Journal Encuentro (work on Cuba, 2004), Arthur Whitaker Prize (best book 1982), Hoover Institution Prize (best article 1986), Prize to best Cuban-American educator (2013) finalist in Spain's Prince of Asturias Prize on Social Sciences (2009, 2014, 2015); selected among the 50 most influential Iberoamerican intellectuals (2014). Member: National Academy of Social Insurance, Editorial Board International Social Security Review and other 7 academic journals. Grants: Ford, Friedrich-Ebert, Heinz, Inter-American, Japan, Kellogg, Mellon, Reynolds, Rockefeller and Tinker Foundations, SSRC, NSF and US-Spain Commission for Academic Exchange. Website: www.mesa-lago.com.